UPPER CHELSEA

THE PARISH NOTICES

Sunday 21 January 2018
The Third Sunday of Epiphany

Holy Trinity Sloane Square
London SW1X 9BZ

THE NOTICES

Welcome to Sloane Square, Fr Grant Bolton-Debbage!

There will be a special service to welcome Fr. Grant to our community on Saturday 10 February at 4pm: Choral Evensong followed by refreshments. The Archdeacon of Middlesex will be our guest preacher. We hope that a number of Fr. Grant's former parishioners from Great Yarmouth will come to support him. Please continue to pray for our new Assistant Priest as he makes a new beginning with us in Sloane Square.

Older People's Project

Thanks to a generous legacy from a former member of our congregation, we will be launching an Older People's Project in our parish in the course of 2018. The aim is to improve the quality of life of older people in our congregation and those living in our parish.

The first step on this journey takes place on Sunday 4 February when we welcome Ann Morisy, the Development officer of PSALM (Project for Seniors and Lifelong Ministry) to preach at the 11am Sung Eucharist.

Afterwards there will be lunch at the Sloane Club at which Ann will open up some of the opportunities before us. We are able to offer tickets for this lunch at £10 per person (excluding drinks) for the first 50 people who are either aged 65 or over or keen to be involved in the project in some way. There are 20 tickets at the full price of £20 for those of any age who simply want to enjoy a nice lunch.

If you would like to come to the lunch please e-mail our Parish Administrator Sophie Wilson: parishoffice@holytrinitysloanesquare.co.uk

A new look for the Parish Room

The Parish Room at Holy Trinity, which for a century was the Choir Room before becoming the Parish Office 20 years ago, is having a makeover thanks to funding from the Monument Trust. Now that the office has moved for the foreseeable future to the Gallery there's an opportunity to provide ourselves with a badly needed reception room for meetings and special events. The works are being carried out in two stages, beginning with relighting and repainting the room. Later in the year we hope to commission a new piece of art for the ceiling and a new rug for the floor. Photographs of the work in progress can be found on our social media: Facebook.com/SloaneChurch and Twitter/SloaneChurch

Free Teatime Concerts

Wednesdays 5.30–6pm

This term we have a diverse array of organ recitalists, choirs and instrumental ensembles joining us for our free concert series in Holy Trinity which celebrates our magnificent new organ. The next concert, on Wednesday 24 January, features the wonderful soprano Natasha Page who is currently studying at the Royal Academy of Music. She will sing a 30-minute programme of Straus and Debussy. Even if you personally are unable to come along, please do tell all of your friends and acquaintances!

Piano Recital by Jacqueline Cole

On Saturday 27 January at 7.30pm playing; Chopin, Mozart, Ullman, Haydn and Faure in aid of Detention Action.

OFSTED at Holy Trinity C of E Primary School

In early December, an inspector from OFSTED (The Government's Office for Standards in Education) visited our school to carry out a day-long inspection. The last inspection in 2012 found our school to be a 'Good' school. I am glad to report that the inspector's report has judged our school to be 'Good' once again. This outcome represents a huge achievement on behalf of our Headteacher, Mrs. Deborah Lloyd-Wright, her Staff the Governors and, indeed, the children. If you would like to read the report, follow this link: goo.gl/kYgH81 and do pray for our school as it prepares for its RE inspection later this year.
