Welcome back. Welcome New Staff!

Mr Davies

Hello all, my name is Kwesi Davies and I am the new year 2 teacher at Holy Trinity. I have been at the school for a short time already and have thoroughly enjoyed it. I have been warmly welcomed already by members of the school community and my class have been wonderful. Miss Carter was also wonderfully helpful in my transition. I recently moved to the local area and my wife and I are expecting our first child in May so along with SATs for year 2 this is a very big year! Other than that, being a Manchester United fan is not the barrel of laughs it once was but I support them none the less. I look forward to getting to know you all better and working with you all in the future. I am very much looking forward to this role and sharing my faith and enthusiasm for learning with the children.

Mr Rubangakene (roo-bang-ga-ken-ay)

I'm a fairly quiet person but can be loud if I need to be. I like to think I am a guide for discovery. I try to love on the bright side of things, I love sports, especially basketball and football: my favourite teams are the Boston Celtics and Chelsea FC respectively. Now I am the Y5 TA and Sports Clubs Coach and looking forward to making many joyous memories of life in Holy Trinity Primary school!
