We would love you to become more involved in our school and help us. This might be reading with children, or helping organise resources. You might have skills with computers or cooking, or you might be able to read books in other languages. Whatever skills you have, please think about sharing them with us, to help our school.

If you can spare some time and would like to help us, please return this form to your teacher. They will send it on to me and I will get in touch with you.

Dear Parents.

I have recently taken on the role of Parent Partnership Manager for Holy Trinity School. This means that my job is to ask what you need as parents, help you understand more about school life at Holy Trinity, and ask for your help! Over the next few months, I would hope that there may be more opportunities for you to see what happens in our assemblies, join us for participation days and concerts, and perhaps volunteer to provide more for our children.

I'm going to start by asking for your help.

We would love you to feel welcome to spend time in school, helping, by doing something you might have a skill in. This might be reading with children, talking or playing games with them. It could also be partnering with another adult to offer a club or activity for children. It might also be translating this letter into a language for other parents to feel more included. We always need volunteers to help us with school trips.

Whatever you can offer, we would love to hear from you. Please consider filling out and returning this form to your class teacher.

Finally, on behalf of Mrs Lloyd-Wright and the staff at Holy Trinity School, thank you to those of you who already do volunteer. You really do help keep things going, we love having you in school, and we hope for your continued support throughout this school year.
